

Curriculum Vitae

Fred Diamond

Address: Department of Mathematics, MS-050
Brandeis University, Waltham, MA 02454.

Phone: (781)736-3063.

Email: fdiamond@brandeis.edu

Date of birth: November 19, 1964.

Education:

Ph.D., Princeton University, October 1988.

Thesis: On congruence modules associated to Λ -adic forms.

Advisor: Andrew Wiles.

B.A., University of Michigan, December 1983.

Employment:

Brandeis University, Professor, 2002–present.

Brandeis University, Associate Professor, 1999–2002.

Rutgers University, Associate Professor, 1997–1999.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Lecturer, 1996–1997.

University of Cambridge, EPSRC Research Associate, 1994–1996.

Columbia University, Ritt Assistant Professor, 1990–1994.

Boston University, Visiting Assistant Professor, 1989–1990.

Ohio State University, Visiting Lecturer, 1988–1989.

Visiting positions:

Université de Paris VII, Visiting Professor, Summer 2000.

Harvard University, Visiting Scholar, Spring 1999.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Lecturer, Spring 1998.

Université de Paris-Sud, CNRS Research Associate, Summer 1997.

Institute for Advanced Study, Member, Fall 1995.

Institute for Advanced Study, Member, Fall 1994.

Professional activities and awards:

Editor, Manuscripta Mathematica, 1999–present.

NSF Grants, 1998–present.

AMS Centennial Fellowship, 1997–1999.

NSF Graduate Fellowship, 1985–1988.